Gen. Houston's Letter.

The Bossing Post of to-day will contain letter of Gen. Houston to Preddent Pierres Inded to in the prints. The General's remare chiefly confined to advice touching the formation of the Cabbact of the Incoming ministration, but the chief point of the let at the close, in which Mr. Houston clares that no consideration could induce hif spared, to remain in official position in W. The Partitue Case.

The Cincinnati Gassic of yesterday in speaking of the opening of the Fugitive Slava case,
on Tuesday, says:

Court met at 10 o'clock.
On entering we were surprised to see a large number of gentlemen wearing the badge of the Legion of Honor (a red ribben in the button hole.) The first thought was that they might se distinguished Frenchmen—invited guests to the 23d February celebration—but we after rards learned that the special U. S. Marshals appointed to grard this negro woman and her here children, had so high an appreciation of the daty that they had thought proper to consiment the Legion of Honor by assuming its edge.

That's the right badge—blood red.

The claimant finished his evidence as to ownership, and the counsel for the slaves then offered, first, the indictment against this woman Whig Nomination in New Ham Boeros, Feb. 15.
The Straight-Whigs of New Hampshire have nominated Icabod Goodwin for Governor.

The letter of Gen. Houston was confided a Eschayor Mekie, of this city, for publication in the following are the closing paragraphs:

"So fire wil hear suggested, I codelude fire the mation expects an able and faithful administration of the submirement by you and a strict adherence to the principles had down by Gen. Jackson will be the landmark by which the policy of the mation will be man aged by your recommendation, and under you guitanos. So far as my individual opinions and feelings are concerned, I can desire nothing more, and hope for nothing less. I will resolve to assets, so far as my sindividual opinions and the source of the submired that is aurder cannot slay the deavery. It is disease is granted, it wrests from the Slate the light to punish nurder.

If this was decided to be the law, a fugitive could, on the trial, shoot down the Marshais, or even the Commissioner, and he could not be punished for so doing. Parimount is this right—the right of the State is superior to all pri-ence of your countrymen in the ability rless probity with which they rely. the revival of this downward tendency binet of irreprocehable and unapproac-tegrity, of intelligence and industry, is a

Col. Chambers objected on the ground that being a fugitive the provisions of the Fugitive Siave Law directly forbid her being a winces for herself or any body else.

After a long discussion the Court stated that is land refused to sever the cases, simply on the ground of delay, but could see no objection to admitting the woman's testimony in Pehalf of her children, and she wai accordingly put on the stand and severs.
